POLICY:

College employees are expected to fulfill their assignments efficiently to the best of their ability, and to conduct themselves on College time and premises in a manner that promotes the safety and welfare of students, visitors and all employees, to encourage congenial work habits, and to protect College and personal property.

To promote these goals, the well-being of all on campus, and the efficient operation of the institution, the College has established rules and regulations for the conduct of employees, and guidelines for the administering of discipline when employee conduct interferes with the orderly operation of the College.
