

ALTERED BOOK ART COMPETITION REGISTRATION FORM
LSSU Campus Library, Sault Ste. Marie, MI 49786
906-635-2815 – www.lssu.edu/library

The LSSU Campus Library is hosting the second annual Altered Book Art Competition. Entries will be accepted at the LSSU Campus Library through November 29th 2017 at 4pm.

- Books and book covers can be picked up starting November 1st at the LSSU Campus Library.
- Entries will be accepted from, November 1st, through November 29th at 4 PM.
- Any entries submitted after November 29th, at 4pm will be displayed at the library, but will not be considered for the competition.
- Judging will occur on November 29th after 4pm. Competition winners will be announced on November 30th.

According to the International Society of Altered Book Artists, an altered book is any book, old or new that has been recycled by creative means into a work art. They can be... rebound, painted, cut, burned, folded, added to, collaged in, gold leafed, rubber stamped, drilled or otherwise adorned. Altered books may be as simple as adding a drawing or text to a page, or as complex as creating an intricate book sculpture.

Competition Guideline:

- The competition will be open to everyone, and will be judged in categories:
- Children: 6 – 12 years
- Teens: 13 – 17 years
- Adults 18+
- The altered book artwork must be that of the registered artist
- Artwork must be completed, dry, and free of loose media (i.e. no flaking or rubbing off)
- The judges reserve the right to refuse to display any work it feels is not appropriate
- The LSSU Campus Library, and Bayliss Public Library in Sault Ste. Marie, have the right to use images of any work on advertising materials, or publications including on digital media
- There are no rules about how to alter your book – you can add to, delete from, cut up, collage, or reconfigure the book. The LSSU Campus Library will provide books or book covers that would otherwise have been recycled. Please do not repurpose library or otherwise viable books!
- The teen and adult “book artwork” will be judged in four categories: aesthetics, technical skills, Station Eleven themes (Ethics/Good vs. Evil; Infectious Disease; Sustainability of Art in a Post-Pandemic World), and people’s choice
- All entries must be submitted by Monday, November 29th at 4pm
- Competition winners will be announced on Wednesday, November 30th.
